RELIEF ORDER

USDC SDNY DOCUMENT ELECTRONICALLY FILED DOC #: _____ DATE FILED: 08/28/24

VICTOR MARRERO, United States District Judge:

Cengage Learning, Inc. (“Cengage”), McGraw Hill LLC (“McGraw Hill”), Bedford, Freeman & Worth Publishing Group, LLC d/b/a Macmillan Learning (“Macmillan Learning”), Elsevier Inc. (“Elsevier”), and Pearson Education, Inc. (“Pearson”) (collectively, the “Publishers”) and Elsevier B.V. and Macmillan Holdings, LLC (“Macmillan Holdings”) (collectively, with the Publishers, “Plaintiffs”) have moved for entry of a default judgment, permanent injunction, and post-judgment relief order (“Motion”) against Defendants Elizabeth Marie Smith, Stephanie Van

Friedly, Doe 1 d/b/a abbooks.shop and the additional infringing websites identified in Appendix A hereto (hereinafter, for each Defendant, “Associated Sites”), Doe 2 d/b/a alibookstore.online and Associated Sites, Doe 3 d/b/a boaklux.com and Associated Sites, Doe 4 d/b/a bookstoreclerk.com, Doe 5 d/b/a booksvault.com, Doe 6 d/b/a gramcies.com, Doe 7 d/b/a manjazz.myshopify.com and Associated Sites, Doe 8 d/b/a messiahbook.com, Doe 9 d/b/a mirrortyr.com, Doe 10 d/b/a ohmyayam.mybigcommerce.com and Associated Sites, Doe 11 d/b/a pbookstore.com, Doe 12 d/b/a semenawit.mybigcommerce.com and Associated Sites, Doe 13 d/b/a testsbooks.com, Doe 14 d/b/a topfibo.com, Doe 15 d/b/a trakinisa.com, and Doe 16 d/b/a wavetags.com (collectively, as to the parties, “Defendants,” and as to the websites, “Infringing Sites” or “Sites”). Plaintiffs so move the Court on the basis that Defendants, with no license or authorization, are unlawfully reproducing and distributing digital copies of the Publishers’ copyrighted works, which include unauthorized counterfeit reproductions of the Trademark Plaintiffs’¹ trademarks, on a massive scale in willful violation of the Copyright and Lanham Acts.

Plaintiffs initiated this action on August 14, 2023 against Doe Defendants. See Compl., ECF No. 12. At the same time that they filed the Complaint, Plaintiffs filed an Ex Parte Application for a Temporary Restraining Order, Order to Show Cause Why a Preliminary Injunction Should Not Issue, Expedited Discovery Order, and Alternate Service Order, which the Court granted on August 16, 2023 (“Ex Parte Order”). See Ex Parte Order, ECF No. 28. Pursuant to the Ex Parte Order, Plaintiffs served the Doe Defendants by email with the original Complaint, Summons, Ex Parte Order, and their moving papers. See Decl. of Service, ECF No. 31. On September 13, 2023, the Court issued a Preliminary Injunction. See Prelim. Inj., ECF No. 7. On

December 27, 2023, the Court issued an Amended Preliminary Injunction. See Am. Prelim. Inj., ECF No. 44. After conducting expedited discovery, Plaintiffs filed the Amended Complaint on December 20, 2023, naming two Defendants whose true identities they were able to discover and supplementing the contact information used by the remaining Doe Defendants whose true identities Plaintiffs could not ascertain. See Am. Compl., ECF No. 40 and 40-1. On August 14, 2023, Plaintiffs served the Amended Complaint and Summons on Defendants by email pursuant to the Court's August 16, 2023 Alternate Service Order (Ex Parte at 11-12). See Decl. of Service, ECF No. 43. No Defendant filed an Answer or otherwise responded to the Complaint or the Amended Complaint.

On January 22, 2024, the Clerk of Court issued a Certificate of Default as to all Defendants. See Certificate of Default, ECF No. 49.

Having reviewed the Amended Complaint, Plaintiffs' filings in support of the Motion, and the entire record herein, the Court HEREBY FINDS that:

A. The Publishers are leading educational publishers. The Publishers' publications include physical and digital textbooks, which are widely available in the United States marketplace to consumers for a fee and sold through direct sales channels and legitimate distributors and stores, including through online sales.

B. Defendants own, control, and/or operate websites through which they have infringed Plaintiffs' federally registered copyrights in Plaintiffs' textbooks and, in some instances, the Trademark Plaintiffs' federally registered trademarks ("Infringing Sites"). Such currently known Infringing Sites are identified in Appendix A hereto. Appendix A also lists Defendants' names, "Group" number if applicable, aliases, and email addresses that Plaintiffs identified through discovery. The Defendants in Group 1, as identified in Appendix A, jointly operate the applicable Infringing Sites and, therefore, are jointly and severally liable to Plaintiffs as set forth herein.

C. Defendants have been properly served in this action with the Complaint, the Amended Complaint, and the Summonses.

D. Because Defendants have not filed Answers, otherwise responded to the Complaint or the Amended Complaint, otherwise appeared in this action, or otherwise defended in this action, the Clerk of Court entered default against Defendants on January 22, 2024.

E. The Court has personal jurisdiction over Defendants pursuant to N.Y. C.P.L.R. §§ 302(a)(1) and/or (3).

F. The Publishers own or exclusively control the rights in copyright in and to their respective federally registered copyrighted works or derivative works described in Appendix B hereto (“Plaintiffs’ Authentic Works”).

G. The Trademark Plaintiffs who seek damages on default for trademark counterfeiting are the owners and/or registrants, pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1127, of their respective federally registered trademarks described in Appendix B hereto (“Marks”).

H. Defendants have willfully infringed the Publishers’ copyrights in Plaintiffs’ Authentic Works in connection with Defendants’ knowing reproduction and/or distribution of unauthorized digital copies thereof. Defendants are liable for willful copyright infringement under the Copyright Act, 17 U.S.C. §§ 101, et seq.

I. Certain Defendants, as set forth in Appendix B, have willfully infringed the Trademark Plaintiffs’ trademarks by knowingly using in commerce unauthorized, identical (or substantially indistinguishable) reproductions thereof in connection with the sale, offering for sale, distribution, and/or advertising of infringing copies of Authentic Works. Defendants are liable for willful trademark counterfeiting under the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. §§ 1114(1)(a) and 1127.

J. Plaintiffs have been irreparably harmed as a result of Defendants' unlawful conduct and will continue to be irreparably harmed should Defendants be allowed to continue operating the Infringing Sites.

K. The balance of hardships and public interest weighs in favor of a permanent injunction including because Defendants will not be harmed by being prevented from engaging in infringement, and the public has an interest in the protection of intellectual property rights.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, in accordance with Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 65(d), the Copyright Act, and the Lanham Act, that Defendants, their officers, agents, employees, and attorneys, and all those in active concert or participation with any of them, who receive actual notice of this Permanent Injunction, are enjoined from directly or indirectly: (1) infringing any copyrighted work owned or exclusively controlled by any of the Publishers, or any parent, subsidiary, or affiliate of a Publisher, whether now in existence or later created ("Publishers' Copyrighted Works")²; and (2) infringing any trademark of which any of the Trademark Plaintiffs, or any parent, subsidiary, or affiliate of a Trademark Plaintiff, is the registrant, whether now in existence or later created ("Trademark Plaintiffs' Marks").³

Without limiting the foregoing, IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Defendants, their officers, agents, servants, employees, and attorneys, and all those in active concert or participation with any of them, who receive actual notice of this Order, are permanently enjoined from engaging in any of the following acts:

² With respect to Macmillan Learning only, the definition of "Publishers' Copyrighted Works" does not extend to its parents, subsidiaries, or affiliates, other than its immediate parent company, Macmillan Holdings.

³ With respect to Macmillan Holdings only, the definition of Trademark Plaintiffs' Marks does not extend to its parents, subsidiaries, or affiliates, other than Macmillan Learning.

- 1) Copying, reproducing, manufacturing, importing, downloading, uploading, transmitting, distributing, displaying, selling, offering for sale, advertising, marketing, promoting, or otherwise exploiting any of the Publishers' Copyrighted Works without the Publishers' express written authorization; or enabling, facilitating, permitting, assisting, soliciting, encouraging, or inducing others to engage in such activities;
- 2) Copying, reproducing, using in connection with manufacturing, importing, downloading, uploading, transmitting, displaying, distributing, selling, offering for sale, advertising, marketing, or promoting goods or services, or otherwise using in commerce, the Trademark Plaintiffs' Marks without the Trademark Plaintiffs' express written authorization; or enabling, facilitating, permitting, assisting, soliciting, encouraging, or inducing others to engage in such activities; and
- 3) Using, hosting, operating, maintaining, registering, or providing any computer server, website, domain name, domain name server, cloud storage, e-commerce platform, online advertising service, proxy service, website optimization service, search engine or linking services, social media platform, payment processing, or financial service to infringe or to enable, facilitate, permit, assist, solicit, encourage, or induce the infringement of the Publishers' Copyrighted Works or the Trademark Plaintiffs' Marks.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that, pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 504(c) and 15 U.S.C. § 1117(c), Plaintiffs' request for statutory damages under the Copyright Act and the Lanham Act, respectively, is granted, and Plaintiffs are awarded statutory damages as follows (and as further detailed in Appendix B):

Further, Financial Institutions holding currently restrained money or other assets in Defendants' Accounts shall release such money or

C.P.L.R. § 5222-a ("Exemption Request"). Additionally, in the event Plaintiffs discover money or other financial assets belonging to Defendants in any accounts that are not currently restrained, Plaintiffs may continue to serve this Order on Financial Institutions, together with the relevant information known to Plaintiffs identifying Defendants' accounts, and such Financial Institutions shall cease allowing Defendants' money or other assets in such accounts to be transferred, withdrawn, or otherwise disposed of and, within thirty (30) days following actual notice of this Order, shall release such money or other assets to Plaintiffs in full or partial satisfaction of the damages set forth herein, unless the relevant Defendant(s) has filed with the Court and served upon Plaintiffs' counsel an Exemption Request.
